The Aquarian Gospel of Jesus the Christ

Levi Dowling

This visionary text professes to tell the complete story of Jesus' life, including the "lost" years, during which he traveled and studied in Tibet, Egypt, India, Persia, and Greece. First published in 1908, this mystical work is the cornerstone of a Christian denomination and offers intriguing, controversial assertions about Christ's message.

The Gospel in Brief

Leo Tolstoy.

Translated by Isabel Hapgood

Seeking answers to "the problem of life," Tolstoy reinterpreted the first four books of the New Testament to create a single, integrated version of Christ's philosophy. The Russian author disregarded issues related to Jesus' divinity, focusing strictly on his words and teachings, for a remarkably modern meditation on spirituality.

The Unknown Life of Jesus Christ

Nicolas Notovitch.

Translated by Virchand R. Gandhi

Notovitch, a Russian explorer of the 1890s, once visited a Tibetan monastery, where he heard of a "western Dalai Lama" who visited the region 2,000 years before. The author's discovery offers an intriguing account of Christ's life from the ages of 13 to 29, when Jesus reputedly studied in Asia among Buddhists. Originally dismissed, Notovitch's controversial study has recently garnered widespread attention.
