Treasury of Ornamental Ironwork 16th to 18th Centuries

Adalbert Roeper

The enormous diversity and enduring beauty of ornamental ironwork is celebrated in this singular sourcebook. Sixty antique plates showcase metal doors, balconies, window arches, gates, corner pieces, decorative embellishments, and more — many wrought with gargoyles, human figures, and florals. An accurate and invaluable reference for art historians, architects, and designers.

Architecture

Gibbs' Book of Architecture An Eighteenth-Century Classic James Gibbs

James Gibbs remains one of England's most influential and respected architects. His legendary 1728 folio includes perspectives and blueprints for such magnificent commissions as London's St. Martins-in-the-Fields — the standard for many churches that followed — the Senate House of the University of Cambridge plus fine drawings of marble cisterns, iron gates, funeral monuments, and more.
