The Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island Teacher’s Manual has been developed to assist in the presentation of Common Core State Standards in an engaging and meaningful way to help children use, apply, and master the skills to be successful.

On pages 2–4, the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island Teacher’s Manual provides a correlation of the Common Core State Standards skills that are introduced, practiced, and reviewed in the manual activities.

On page 5 of the manual, the lessons present activities that can be used with each and every page of the book. The Learning Activities begin with Reading exercises to introduce the page, practice the skills, and review the concepts presented. Following the Reading exercises are Speaking/Listening skills and Language skills that present ways to help children practice these key items. After each activity, the Common Core State Standards are listed to identify the skill focus for that section.

On page 6 of the manual, Vocabulary and Writing Activities are presented. After each activity, the Common Core State Standards are listed to assist the teacher in the skill focus for each section. The Vocabulary section integrates academic and domain-specific words that are presented in the activities. The Writing sections engage children in the three key styles of writing found in the Common Core State Standards: Narrative, Informative/Explanatory, and Opinion.

Summary

The book uses pictures and text to introduce information about the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island to children.

Learning Activities

Introduce the Book

- Show the cover of the book. Help children name the statue and tell about other things they see in the picture. (RI.1.7, SL.1.1, SL.1.2, RI.2.7, SL.2.1, SL.2.2)
- Read the Introduction with children to help them gain background information about the Statue of Liberty and immigrants who came to America through Ellis Island. Ask: Where are the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island located? (RI.1.1, SL.1.4, RI.2.1, SL.2.4)

Present a Reading Routine

- Read aloud the text on page 1. Allow time for children to look at the text. Have them recognize the features of the sentence, including capitalization and punctuation. Then have children reread the sentence aloud accurately and fluently. (RI.1.10, RF.1.1.a, RF.1.4, RI.2.10, RF.2.4.a)
- After you read a page aloud, ask questions about the pictures on the page. Help children distinguish between information provided in the pictures and information provided by the text. (RI.1.1, RI.1.6, RI.1.7, SL.1.2, RI.2.1, RI.2.7, SL.2.2)

Provide Activities for Reading

- Read the sentence on page 7. Pause and ask: What does the word framework mean? Help children recognize that the structure in the picture is the framework. Say each word part out loud: frame, work. Have children repeat the word parts. Explain that this word is a compound word made from two smaller words and identifies the way something is put together. (RI.1.1, RI.1.4, RI.1.6, RI.1.7, RF.1.3.e, L.1.4, L.1.6, RI.2.1, R.2.4, RI.2.7, RF.2.3.c, L.2.4, L.2.4.d)
- Show page 38 and reread the text. Ask children to describe what the people in the picture are doing using key details from the text and the picture. Then ask them what kind of games they play in their neighborhood. Have children draw a picture of themselves playing a game in their neighborhood. (RI.1.1, RI.1.2, RI.1.6, RI.1.7, RI.1.10, SL.1.2, SL.1.4, SL.1.5, RI.2.1, RI.2.2, RI.2.7, RI.2.10, SL.2.2, SL.2.5)

Focus on Language Arts

- Speaking/Listening: Read the text on the bottom of page 19 aloud. Explain that “The New Colossus” is a poem about the hopes of and opportunities for immigrants in America. Read the poem aloud and help children read the poem together as a group. If possible, make an audio recording of them reading the poem. (SL.1.1, SL.1.6, SL.2.1, SL.2.5, SL.2.6)
- Language Skills: Reread page 27. Write the phrase coat of arms on the board. Explain that a coat of arms is not a coat that is made out of arms but rather a symbol or emblem that represents something. This coat of arms represents America and the U.S. flag. Have children draw a coat of arms for their family using symbols, colors, and words that remind them of their family. Ask volunteers to present their coat of arms to the class. (SL.1.5, L.1.5, L.1.6, SL.2.5, L.2.5, L.2.6)
Vocabulary Activities

Capitalized Words
Read page 7 aloud to children. Explain that Alexandre-Gustave Eiffel, Eiffel Tower, and Paris are capitalized because they are a person's name, a national landmark, and a city/geographic location, which are all proper nouns. Have children practice writing and saying these words. Then go through each page of the book. Have children identify each word that begins with a capital letter and explain why the word is capitalized. (SL.1.4, L.1.1.a, L.1.2.a, SL.2.2, L.2.1, L.2.2.a)

Writing Activities

Narrative Writing
Explain to children that a story tells about events that happen first, next, and last. Have them look at the picture on page 33. Write this story on the board: This man is an immigrant from Europe. He sailed to America on a ship. He passed the medical examination at Ellis Island. He looked for his relatives in New York City. Read the story aloud and have children identify what happens first, next, and last. Then have groups of children write or dictate other events to create a story about this man or another immigrant in the book. (W.1.3, SL.1.4, W.2.3, SL.2.4)

Informative/Explanatory Writing
Have children choose a famous immigrant from pages 42–43 and write a report about that person. Help them use encyclopedias and other sources, including digital tools, to gather information about the immigrant. Remind children that informative reports name a topic, supply facts and details about the topic, and give the reader a sense of closure at the end. Suggest that children can draw or color the picture from the book to accompany their writing and present the report to the class. (W.1.2, W.1.6, W.1.8, SL.1.5, W.2.2, W.2.6, W.2.8, SL.2.5)

Opinion Writing
Remind children that opinion pieces state an opinion and give reasons to support the opinion. Ask: If you could move to a new country, which country would it be and why? Have children write their answer using complete sentences. If they have difficulty, provide this sentence frame: I want to move to _____. It would be nice to live there because _____. Then have them draw a picture of themselves in that country. Have volunteers share their sentences and drawings with the class. (W.1.1, SL.1.5, L.1.1.j, W.2.1, SL.2.5, L.2.1.f)
